The sime will no doubt come, and that at no distant day, when a Southern man will be Vi e President and perhaps the President will be from the Sauth by the end of the nineteenth century. But nominations should be made upon the meets and fitness of men rather than frem a sectional standpoint. This would be a wise policy for any party. If any man South of the Ohio aspires to a place on the next National Democratic ticket, let firm make the signite his friends that they may arge his claims. Still we doubt the necessity, utility or even the expediency of any such a move at this time. Let the singestian capa from some other part of the country. Isham G. The well-known morine diver James Moord, lost one of his feet in a pocu ar manner while under water at the Kanes railway's incline yeaternson, a long, sharp-pointed bolt was dropped by one of the workmen above for his use. It struck his foot, passed through and pishoned him so the hard, tenacious blue glay which forms the bed of the river. His scream of pain caused four men to go to his aid without delay. They could not extricate him, and as he was about to sufficate, he took a knife and deliberately cut his foot loose from the fustening. One report says he cut the Goot entirely off, and another that it was only split between two of the toes from the center of the instense in the southern part of the city, and he oscaped lock-jaw. His chances to recover are good.

New York, October 16.—John Irving and John Waish, two widely known burgiars, shot and killed each other in Shaug Draper's saloon, 400 Sixth avenue, early this morning. They had a bitter quarrel, aid it is said that six weeks ago they met in another autom and drew pistols on each other, but were separated. The police's story is that John Irving and 'Jack, the Mick.' were in Draper's saloon shouly before 2 o'clock the morning and both were filled with higher. They quarreled about some rascality in which they were mutually interested. They presuntly became noisy, and Billy Porice entered and tried to stop the row. His interference only roused the rinters to fury, and both whipped out their revolvers and fired at close quarters. Every one in the saloon sought cover as the double report rang out. The shots were fired at the same instant, with like effect. I rring fell dead with 'Jack, the Mick' bullet in his brain, and 'the Mick' fall, shot through the brart. Neither lived long enough to breathe twice after being shot. Billy Porter and the gang ran out to the street, but the reports of the pistols were heard by the poine, and Porter was arrested.
